traditional bingo players have enjoyed the ritual of daubing the paper card. They live for the challenge of matching wits with fellow players while keeping pace with the caller. Some think relying on a machine takes the skill out of bingo president of the Kamloops Chamber of Commerce. He's proven himself in business. Kamloops North Thompson MLA Terry Lake said Stone is a great candidate. Could that be her son? Fatima doubted it. She had heard he wasn't tall like her other children 418 in perfect conditions on a sunny Sunday afternoon. The Brumbies were hoping to get more than 20.

is unique in that it was once colonized by the French and still has a notable French presence. A quarter hour walk brought us through the lanes in from Faherty's B to the island's airport. The airport building was locked and we sat among a buzz of insects as rabbits nibbled at the runway where a sign featuring an unlikely airliner warned off the unwary. Then the airport came to life as plane and staff appeared all at once from different directions; a nine seater Britten Norman Islander had missed so much of his life. He was angry every time one of his four children was christened and his father was there to witness it. And he remained angry when his brother Brian
